HAROLD BAER, Jr., District Judge:

Do the parties consent to proceed before a United States Magistrate for all purposes, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 73?

Yes No

Pursuant to Rule 16(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, after holding an initial pretrial conference on notice to all parties, it is hereby ordered that:

Except under circumstances agreed to by the Court:

1. This case is added to the November 20⁰⁹ Trailing Trial Calendar.
Jury Non-Jury . Estimated number of trial days is . Counsel should not make any other commitments during this month. As a general rule, and for your information when filling this out prior to the PTC keep in mind that most all cases will be tried within a reasonable time from the date of this pretrial conference based on the complexity of the case, rarely more than 12-14 months so don't agree on 2 years, etc., etc.. Within that (12 - 14 months or less) window I will abide by your choice of months to try your case. Keep in mind the quid pro quo is that the month you choose, due to my trailing trial calendar format, will rarely if ever be changed.

2. No additional parties may be joined after 2/1/09.

New parties shall be bound by the deadlines included in this Pretrial Scheduling Order. If new parties are joined, the party joining them shall forward to them a copy of this Pretrial Scheduling Order and offer to provide them with access to all previously taken discovery. Should this pose a seemingly insurmountable problem, call Chambers.

3. No additional causes of action or defenses may be asserted after 2/1/09.

Evidence intended to contradict or rebut the subject matter of the expert testimony will be submitted within 21 calendar days after the disclosure made by the other party, subject only to further order of this Court. As the Court rarely grants extensions, any delays or disputes in the taking of discovery should be reported to the Court immediately.~~

The above date is the date by which any motion shall be fully briefed (i.e., moving, opposition and reply papers) and a courtesy copy delivered directly to Chambers.

In choosing the last date to submit fully briefed motions and your agreed to trial month, keep in mind that the Court requires at least 60 days to decide dispositive motions.

When the parties settle within forty-eight hours of trial or the filing of a dispositive motion, they must notify the Court immediately of such settlement, and fax to the Court no less than thirty-six hours prior to their planned appearance, an Order of Discontinuance (copy attached), signed by all parties.
